

Promotion of access to the information act manual for De Leeuwen T/A MediStay

Prepared in accordance with section 51 of The Promotion of Access to Information Act.

1. INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL

- 1.1 This manual is published in terms of Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act 2 of 2000 - "the Act"). The Act gives effect to the provisions of section 32 of the Constitution of South Africa, which provides that everyone has the right of access to any information held by another person and that is required for the exercise and/or protection of any rights. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to which the request is made is obliged to release the information, except where the Act provides that the information may or must not be released.
- 1.2 The reference to any information in addition to that specifically required in terms of Section 51 of the Act does not create any right or entitlement (contractual or otherwise) to receive such requested information, other than in terms of the Act.
- 1.3 It is important to note that the Act recognizes certain limitations to the right of access to information, including, but not limited to, limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy, commercial confidentiality, and effective and good governance, and in a manner which balances that right with any other Information Officer named below is appointed gets, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution. Any request for access to information may be refused on the grounds as set out in Chapter 4 of Part 3 of the Act.
